Lyzbeth Glick, white female, [redacted] was interviewed at the summer residence [redacted] Present during the interview were New York State Police Investigator [redacted] After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the nature of the interview, Lyzbeth Glick provided the following information:

On 09/11/2001, at approximately 9:30 a.m., a telephone call was received by Lyzbeth [redacted] residence, telephone [redacted] from Lyzbeth's husband, Jeremy Logan Glick, male, born 09/03/1970, from a telephone on-board United Airlines Flight #93. Jeremy was supposed to have traveled on 09/10/2001; however, a fire at the Newark airport delayed his flight by a day. Jeremy left his residence in Hewitt, NJ, on 09/11/2001 for Newark International Airport to board Flight #93 en route, non-stop, to San Francisco, CA. Jeremy was presumably carrying only a small, wheeled, carry-on suitcase and a laptop computer on the flight. Jeremy was employed as a sales manager by Vividence, Inc., of San Mateo, CA, (415) 305-6170, was en route to San Francisco for a meeting and was scheduled to return on 09/12/2001.

During the call, Jeremy initially spoke [redacted] and immediately asked to speak to his wife, Lyzbeth. After giving the telephone to Lyzbeth, [redacted] contacted "911" via her cellular telephone [redacted] Jeremy first told Lyzbeth that he loved her and then said that Flight #93 had been hijacked by three "Iranian-looking" males, with dark skin and bandanas (ethnic type as opposed to hippie type) on their heads. One of the males stated that he was in possession of a bomb in a red box and one was armed with a knife. Jeremy advised that the plane was approximately one hour out of Newark and that they were over land, although it felt as if they were circling instead of flying straight towards California. Jeremy advised Lyzbeth that the hijackers had herded the passengers into the rear of the plane and told them that if they did not crash into the World Trade Center, that they were going to blow-up the plane. One of the hijackers then told the passengers to call their loved ones. The three hijackers then entered the cockpit of the plane. Jeremy advised that he was unsure if the hijackers were going to crash or blow-up the plane.

The entire call lasted approximately fifteen to twenty minutes. Lyzbeth could not hear any unusual sounds in the background of the call and the connection was extremely clear, "as if he was calling from the next room." Jeremy was extremely calm, but sounded very concerned and confused. Jeremy advised that the Captain had not made any announcements and that the people were scared because they did not know what was happening.

Jeremy advised Lyzbeth that other passengers had contacted their wives and husbands and asked if it were true that people were crashing planes into the World Trade Center. Lyzbeth and her parents had been watching news coverage of the events on the television and were aware that at least one plane had crashed into the World Trade Center, but neither of the Towers had fallen at the time of Jeremy's call. Jeremy advised Lyzbeth that he and four other male passengers were contemplating "rushing" the hijackers and asked Lyzbeth if that was okay with her. Lyzbeth told Jeremy that she did not know if that was okay and asked Jeremy if any of the hijackers had guns, to which Jeremy replied they did not.

In a joking manner, as if ease Lyzbeth's concern, Jeremy advised that he and approximately four other male passengers were "going to get the butter knives." Jeremy then, seriously, told Lyzbeth that he and the other males were organizing to "rush" the hijackers. Jeremy told Lyzbeth that he loved her and asked her not to hang-up the telephone.

Lyzbeth remained on the phone for a few minutes then handed the telephone to [REDACTED]
